5101:3-3-05 (B) Level of care definitions

(2) "Activity of daily living (ADL)" means a personal or self-care task that enables an individual to meet basic life needs. For purposes of this rule, the term "ADL" includes the following defined activities:
   (a) "Bathing" means the ability of an individual to cleanse one's body by showering, tub, or sponge bath, or any other generally accepted method.
   (b) "Dressing" means the ability of an individual to complete the activities necessary to dress oneself and includes the following two components:
      (i) Putting on and taking off an item of clothing or prosthesis; and
      (ii) Fastening and unfastening an item of clothing or prosthesis.
   (c) "Eating" means the ability of an individual to feed oneself. Eating includes the processes of getting food into one's mouth, chewing, and swallowing, and/or the ability to use and self-manage a feeding tube.
   (d) "Grooming" means the ability of an individual to care for one's appearance and includes the following three components:
      (i) Oral hygiene;
      (ii) Hair care; and
      (iii) Nail care.
   (e) "Mobility" means the ability of an individual to use fine and gross motor skills to reposition or move oneself from place to place and includes the following three components:
      (i) "Bed mobility" means the ability of an individual to move to or from a lying position, turn from side to side, or otherwise position the body while in bed or alternative sleep furniture;
      (ii) "Locomotion" means the ability of an individual to move between locations by ambulation or by other means; and
      (iii) "Transfer" means the ability of an individual to move between surfaces, including but not limited to, to and from a bed, chair, wheelchair, or standing position.
   (f) "Toileting" means the ability of an individual to complete the activities necessary to eliminate and dispose of bodily waste and includes the following four components:
      (i) Using a commode, bedpan, or urinal;
      (ii) Changing incontinence supplies or feminine hygiene products;
      (iii) Cleansing self; and
      (iv) Managing an ostomy or catheter.

(5) "Assistance" means the hands-on provision of help in the initiation and/or completion of a task.

(17) "Instrumental activity of daily living (IADL)" means the ability of an individual to complete community living skills. For the purposes of this rule, the term "IADL" includes the following defined activities:
   (a) "Community access " means the ability of an individual to use available community services and supports to meet one's needs and includes the following three components:
      (i) "Accessing transportation" means the ability to get and use transportation.
(ii) "Handling finances" means the ability of an individual to manage one's money and does not include transportation. Handling finances includes all of the following:
   (a) Knowing where money is;
   (b) Knowing how to get money;
   (c) Paying bills; and
   (d) Knowing how to get and use benefits and services, including but not limited to:
