

5123:2-3-22

Licensing fees for residential facilities.

(A) Purpose

The purpose of this rule is to establish fees and procedures for the licensing of residential facilities.

(B) Fee schedule

Licensing fees shall be based on the term of a license as established in rules 5123:2-3-02 and 5123:2-3-03 of the Administrative Code:

(1) For an interim license, the fee shall be forty dollars; and for the renewal of an interim license, the fee shall be twenty-five dollars.

(2) For a one-year license, the fee shall be fifty dollars.

(3) For a two-year license, the fee shall be seventy-five dollars.

(4) For a three-year license, the fee shall be one hundred dollars.

(C) The applicant shall submit the fee in a manner prescribed by the department. The fee shall be paid in the form of a cashier's check, corporate check or money order, payable to the Ohio department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities. The fee is non-refundable.
